

Chicago Daily Law Bulletin

Volume 158, No. 33

YOU TELL US...

Submit your contributions to editor@LBPC.com

How does the economy affect the practice?

“I have found that with the difficult times we face today, my clients are even more concerned and sensitive about structuring the appropriate estate plan relating to their personal situation.”

DAVID J. FEINBERG
Chuhak & Tecson PC.

“Technological advances make the law more accessible to all. The squeezing of corporate profits and increased competition because of the increased numbers of lawyers and decreased numbers of available hours make efficiency paramount.”

STEVEN R. JAKUBOWSKI
Levenfeld, Pearlstein LLC

“Even though the economic downturn has impacted businesses, which has triggered some layoffs at their outside law firms and within their own corporate counsel, the impact has created new work like regulatory and litigation defense.”

CHRISTINE A. EDWARDS
Winston & Strawn LLP